GOVERNMENT POSTPONES DEPORTATION -- Bollettino Danubiano, 22 Mar 52

Hungarian emigre newspapers have published reports that the Budapest authorities wished to deport the widow of Bela Kun, head of the 1919 Communist regime in Hungary.

According to latest information, the Hungarian authorities have postponed the order to deport the widow because they have learned that extremely important and compromising documents regarding the assassination of Bela Kun and other Communist chiefs are in the possession of the widow's relatives living abroad, and that they will be published if she is deported.
